Dear Congressional Award Recipients:

It is my great pleasure to congratulate you for the honor of being named a recipient of the Congressional Award. I join your family and friends in applauding you for such an accomplishment.

This award is a testament to your commitment to high standards, and I am honored to represent such a motivated group of young Americans in Congress. The time and energy that you have dedicated to accomplishing your goals is truly impressive. Future students will be able to look to you for an example of how to better themselves and their community.

On behalf of the Sixth Congressional District of Missouri, I congratulate you again on receiving this high honor and wish you the best of luck in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Sam Graves
Member of Congress
